

The FCC has long served the public by ensuring that the public airwaves are used to perform a public service. Please protect listeners from unbalanced content dictated by large media owners.